Bowmaker produces some fine scoringfor some !

On a glorious Spring day (at last) we enjoyed a 9 hole Bowmaker with a field of 67 golfers across 23 x 3 ball teams and “ yes “ a couple of teams had the dubious honour of having a blind player. Before we get to the winning teams we can report some good 9 hole scores which had it been an 18 hole round i am sure would have seen their names being added to the Christmas 40 points fine list . So well done to Steve Barton with 19 points and Messers Robinson, Egleton, Solari and McGann all on 18 points. Onto the winners.....& sorry to Roger but your wallet will not be weighted down with that £8.00 as per HWM policy a blind players winnings goes to the Captains charity.

	for the glory and the money	points	£
1st	Ian Atkinson , David Humphrey , Steve Barton	38 pts (CB)	£14.00
2nd	Denis Murdoch , Gerald Bullock , Blind (Roger Robinson)	38 pts	£8.00

Natures Corner

First up is Chris Dalton who having smashed his drive into the pond on the 6th thought he had found his ball only to scoop out a duck egg ! How Chris managed to hook that out of the lake without realising the shape was all wrong and it looked nothing like a gif ball remains to be clarified. However , Chris has told us he enjoyed his duck egg omelette for supper.

To be fair this was last week but what a joy to see this family with the parents shepherding the chicks across the green. Not sure if its the same family or another that is occupying the pond on the 6th but lets hope for their survival and hopefully missing Chris's drive.

The new Club House

If you haven't already seen the refurbished Club House you are in for a real treat. What a fantastic make over and can we all respect the work that has been done with the mantra of - NO GOLF SHOES in the Clubhouse !
